

NIA INTERUNIVERSITY COURSE

Modern Greek II & III

10-18 November 2018

Netherlands Institute at Athens

Survey and staying in Greece becomes more interesting when you are able to communicate with the locals. That's why the Netherlands Institute at Athens together with Taalhuis Amsterdam and in cooperation with Modern Greek studies of the University of Amsterdam developed intensive Greek courses.

The first intensive course Modern Greek gives you the tools to conduct basic conversations in Greek like ordering food and drinks, doing groceries, telling people about yourself. But in the follow up courses we dive deeper into grammar and we have conversations on more complex topics from daily life. You can follow courses at NIA leading to level B2.

BA and MA students can access to the language acquisition exams II & III of Modern Greek at the University of Amsterdam after this course.

The course can accommodate up to 12 students. Researchers and university staff from the Universities of Amsterdam, Leiden and Utrecht, VU University Amsterdam, University of Groningen and Radboud University have priority, but others are also invited to apply.

If you doubt about your level or if you're an absolute beginner, please contact Taalhuis Amsterdam info@taalhuisamsterdam.nl for more information. If possible, we will try to accommodate you.
