

NIA INTERUNIVERSITY COURSE

Modern Greek I & III

21-31 July 2019

Netherlands Institute at Athens

Survey and staying in Greece becomes more interesting when you are able to communicate with the locals. The intensive course Modern Greek I is for absolute beginners and gives you the tools to conduct a basic conversation in Greek: ordering food and drinks, doing groceries, telling people about yourself. The course leads to level A1. Greek III starts at level A2 and dives deeper into grammar, allows you to understand and conduct conversations on more complex topics from daily life, while boosting your vocabulary. The course leads to level B1.

BA and MA students can access to the language acquisition exams I & III of Modern Greek at the University of Amsterdam after this course.

The course can accommodate up to 12 students, researchers and university staff from the Universities of Amsterdam, Leiden and Utrecht, VU University Amsterdam, University of Groningen and Radboud University (if there is enough space, other students / high school teachers etc. can also be accommodated)

If your level is higher than A0 or A2, please contact Taalhuis Amsterdam info@taalhuisamsterdam.nl for more information. If possible, we will try to accommodate you.

N.B: All applications will be examined and confirmed/declined after the deadline.
