

Workshop

Logistics in a changing Europe

4 October 2013

In collaboration with the Netherlands Embassy in Athens and the 'Orange Grove'.

Programme

- 18.00 – 18.15 Welcome and opening of the workshop.
- 18.15 – 19.00 Professor Rob van der Heijden, Dean of the Nijmegen School of Management, Radboud University Nijmegen – Member of the Dutch Advisory Committee on Logistics 2040, Dutch Council for the Environment and Infrastructure, The Hague, New challenges to logistics: the support of the circular economy.
- 19.00 – 19.45 Professor Hercules Haralambides, Maritime Economics and Logistics, Erasmus University Rotterdam – President of the Port of Brindisi, The New European Ports Policy: Challenges for Southern Europe.
- 19.45 – 20.30 Panel Discussion.
- Moderator: Miltiadis Gkouzouris, Cost Accounting Consultant at the Athens based company Costwise; Business economist with a Dutch educational background.
- Participants:
- Professor Rob van der Heijden, Radboud University Nijmegen.
Professor Hercules Haralambides, Erasmus University Rotterdam.
Professor Lambros Laios, Department of Industrial Management & Technology, University of Piraeus.
Professor Styliani Sofianopoulou, Department of Industrial Management & Technology, University of Piraeus.
Ms Claire Melo, Export Logistics Manager, Calpak-Cicero Hellas S.A.

Location: 'Orange Grove', Vas. Konstantinou 5-7, Ground Floor.
(Opposite the Kallimarmaro Olympic Stadium).

Kingdom of the Netherlands

